

For immediate release
August 15, 2017

Coalition to issue statement calling for action on Justice Tulloch's police oversight recommendations

Toronto – A coalition of community and advocacy groups, as well as the Ontario Human Rights Commission, will release a joint statement calling on the Government of Ontario and police oversight bodies to immediately implement recommendations of the Honourable Justice Michael Tulloch from his Report of the Independent Police Oversight Review. This statement follows the recent charges arising from the incident involving Dafonte Miller.

Date: Wednesday, August 16, 2017
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Location: Media Studio
Ontario Legislature, Queen's Park, Toronto

Speakers:

- Dr. Alok Mukherjee, Distinguished Visiting Professor, Department of Criminology, Ryerson University
- Julian Falconer, Principal, Falconers LLP
- Caitlyn Kasper, Staff Lawyer, Aboriginal Legal Services
- Howard F. Morton QC, Barrister, Law Union of Ontario
- Aseefa Sarang, Executive Director, Across Boundaries: An Ethnoracial Mental Health Centre
- Renu Mandhane, Chief Commissioner, Ontario Human Rights Commission

-30-

Media Contact:

Alicia Ann Pereira, Ontario Human Rights Commission | aliciaann.pereira@ohrc.on.ca | 416-314-4558