Forcillo was out on a strict house arrest bail pending the appeal of his 6-yr. sentence.

However he breached his bail conditions when found at his fiancées apt. The AG was granted a request by court of appeal to revoke that bail, Forcillo not fighting it.

Forcillo was on house arrest bail pending an appeal.

Forcillo has been in custody since on Nov. 15, when he was charged with breaching the conditions of his bail.

Investigators say he failed to notify police of a change in his living conditions, as he was found at his fiancée's home instead of the home registered with police.

Forcillo was sentenced to six years in prison for the shooting of Yatim on a streetcar, but had been out on bail while appealing his conviction.

He was found guilty last year of attempted murder but was acquitted of the more serious charge of second-degree murder for shooting Yatim multiple times. He was sentenced to six years behind bars, a year more than the mandatory minimum.
